

First Briefing Meeting of the DRUM Ambassadors Agenda

Thursday 1 October at 11:00 UTC. CODATA Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/6334311413>

Intended outcomes of the session:

- Ambassadors informed of the purpose of the DRUM activities.
- Ambassadors informed of the landscape and in particular the Digital SI process.
- Ambassadors requested to identify and prepare examples and case studies which we can describe and document.
- Answers provided to ambassadors' questions about the content and the process.

Draft Programme

1. Welcome and Agenda (Simon Hodson, 2 minutes)
2. Introduction to the session and the objectives of DRUM (Bob Hanisch, 5 minutes)
3. The World of Units (total 20 minutes)
 - a. The complex landscape of units and why they are important (Bob Hanisch)
 - b. The Digital SI Process (Stuart Chalk)
 - c. Digital representation of units (Stuart Chalk)
4. Request for involvement from the Ambassadors and Unions (Documents and Discussion)
 - a. Examples, case studies, pain points.
 - b. Participation in the Digital SI Workshop
5. Q&A
6. Close and next steps

Briefing Package

Documents to be sent to the Ambassadors in advance of the meeting.

1. Agenda.
2. Units of Measure for Humans and Machines: Making Units Clear for Machine Learning and Beyond.
3. List of Ambassadors and Observers for the first meeting.
4. One page briefing note.
5. One page FAQ document.
6. The World of Units Diagram